BY: Chisum

1 Amend C.S.H.B. No. 1287 by striking all below the enacting
2 clause and substituting the following:

3 SECTION 1. Subchapter A, Chapter 28, Education Code, is 4 amended by adding Section 28.011 to read as follows:

5 Sec. 28.011. ELECTIVE COURSES ON THE BIBLE'S HEBREW
6 SCRIPTURES (OLD TESTAMENT) AND NEW TESTAMENT AND THEIR IMPACT ON 7 THE HISTORY AND LITERATURE OF WESTERN CIVILIZATION. (a) A school
8 district shall offer to students in grade nine or above:

9 (1) an elective course on the Hebrew Scriptures (Old 10 Testament) and its impact and an elective course on the New 11 Testament and its impact; or

12 (2) an elective course that combines the courses
13 described by Subdivision (1).

14 (b) The purpose of a course under this section is to:

15 (1) teach students knowledge of biblical content,
16 characters, poetry, and narratives that are prerequisites to 17 understanding contemporary society and culture, including 18 literature, art, music, mores, oratory, and public policy; and

19 (2) familiarize students with, as applicable:

20 (A) the contents of the Hebrew Scriptures or New
21 Testament;

22 (B) the history of the Hebrew Scriptures or New
23 Testament;

24 (C) the literary style and structure of the Hebrew
25 Scriptures or New Testament; and

26 (D) the influence of the Hebrew Scriptures or New

1 Testament on law, history, government, literature, art, music,
2 customs, morals, values, and culture.

3 (c) Notwithstanding Sections 28.002(c) and 31.022,
4 respectively, for a course under this section, the State Board of 5 Education or the agency may not:

6 (1) identify the essential knowledge and skills; or

7 (2) adopt textbooks under Chapter 31.

8 (d) The book or collection of books commonly known as the 9 Hebrew Scriptures shall be used as the primary source textbook for 10 a course on the Hebrew Scriptures. The book or collection of books
11 commonly known as the New Testament shall be used as the primary
12 source textbook for a course on the New Testament. A school
13 district may select a supporting textbook or curriculum materials
14 to accompany the primary source textbooks, and students may be 15 assigned a range of reading materials for the courses, including 16 selections from secular historical and cultural works and 17 selections from religious and cultural traditions other than the 18 Jewish and Christian traditions.

19 (e) A student may not be required to use a specific 20 translation as the sole text of the Hebrew Scriptures or New 21 Testament and may use as the basic textbook a different translation
22 of the Hebrew Scriptures or New Testament from that chosen by the 23 board of trustees of the student's school district or the student's 24 teacher.

25 (f) A course offered under this section must be taught in an 26 objective and nondevotional manner that does not attempt to 27 indoctrinate students in any religion or nonreligious system of 28 belief. Nothing in a course offered under this section is intended 29 to violate any provision of the United States Constitution, federal

1 law, or the Texas Constitution.

2 (g) A teacher of a course offered under this section is 3 entitled to training in connection with the chosen curriculum at a
4 level equal to that provided to teachers of other elective courses.

5 (h) For the purpose of a student earning credit for high 6 school graduation, a school district shall grant one-half academic 7 elective credit for satisfactory completion of a course on the 8 Hebrew Scriptures, one-half academic elective credit for 9 satisfactory completion of a course on the New Testament, and one-
10 half academic elective credit for satisfactory completion of a 11 combined course on both the Hebrew Scriptures and the New 12 Testament. This subsection applies only to a course that is taught 13 in strict compliance with this section.

14 (i) If, for a particular semester, fewer than 15 students at 15 a school district campus register to enroll in a course required by 16 this section, the district is not required to offer the course at 17 that campus for that semester.

18 (j) This section does not prohibit the board of trustees of a
19 school district from offering an elective course based on the books
20 of a religion or society other than one with Jewish or Christian 21 traditions. In determining whether to offer such a course, the 22 board may consider various factors, including student and parent 23 demand for such a course and the impact such books have had on 24 history and culture.

25 SECTION 2. Section 28.002(a), Education Code, is amended to 26 read as follows:
