

AN ACT

relating to the vaccination against bacterial meningitis of entering students at public and private or independent institutions of higher education.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

SECTION 1. This Act shall be known as the Jamie Schanbaum and Nicolis Williams Act.

SECTION 2. Section 51.9192, Education Code, is amended by amending Subsections (b), (c), and (e) and adding Subsection (d-1) to read as follows:

(b) This section applies only to an entering student at [a first-time student of] an institution of higher education or private or independent institution of higher education. This section does not apply to a student of an institution who is enrolled only in online or other distance education courses or who is 30 years of age or older. For purposes of this subsection, "entering student" includes:

- (1) a new student, as defined by Section 51.9191; and
- (2) a student who previously attended an institution of higher education or private or independent institution of higher education before January 1, 2012, and who is enrolling in the same or another institution of higher education or private or independent institution of higher education following a break in enrollment of at least one fall or spring semester~~[, including a~~

1 ~~transfer student, who resides in, or has applied for on-campus~~
2 ~~housing and been approved to reside in, an on-campus dormitory or~~ 3 ~~other on-campus student housing facility at the institution].~~

4 (c) Except as provided by Subsection (d), a student to whom 5 this section applies or a parent or guardian of the student must 6 provide to the institution, at the time and in the manner prescribed
7 by rules adopted by the Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board, 8 a certificate signed by a health practitioner or an official 9 immunization record evidencing that the student has received a 10 ~~[been vaccinated against]~~ bacterial meningitis vaccination dose or 11 booster during the five-year period preceding the date established
12 by the coordinating board under Subsection (e).

13 (d-1) An institution of higher education or private or 14 independent institution of higher education shall provide, with the 15 registration materials that the institution provides to a student 16 to whom this section applies before the student's initial 17 enrollment in the institution, written notice of the right of the 18 student or of a parent or guardian of the student to claim an 19 exemption from the vaccination requirement in the manner prescribed
20 by Subsection (d) and of the importance of consulting a physician
21 about the need for immunization to prevent the disease.

22 (e) The Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board, in 23 consultation with institutions of higher education and private or 24 independent institutions of higher education, shall adopt rules for 25 the administration of this section, including rules establishing 26 the date by which a student who is required to comply with 27 Subsection (c) must have received the vaccination required by that

1 subsection, which may not be later than the 10th day before the 2 first day of the semester or other term in which the student 3 initially enrolls unless the student is granted an extension by the 4 institution as provided by the rules adopted under this subsection.
5 The rules must authorize an institution of higher education or 6 private or independent institution of higher education to extend 7 the compliance date for an individual student to a date that is not 8 later than the 10th day after the first day of the semester or other 9 term in which the student initially enrolls [~~date the student~~
10 ~~initially moves into an on-campus dormitory or other on-campus~~
11 ~~student housing facility at an institution~~].

12 SECTION 3. The changes in law made by this Act to Section 13 51.9192, Education Code, apply only to entering students enrolling 14 in public or private or independent institutions of higher
15 education in this state on or after January 1, 2012.

16 SECTION 4. This Act takes effect immediately if it receives 17 a vote of two-thirds of all the members elected to each house, as 18 provided by Section 39, Article III, Texas Constitution. If this 19 Act does not receive the vote necessary for immediate effect, this 20 Act takes effect September 1, 2011.
