relating to permitting credit unions and other financial institutions to award prizes by lot to promote savings.
BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:
SECTION 1. The legislature finds that:
(1) many Texans have little experience with mainstream financial services, such as checking and savings accounts;
(2) an estimated one in three households in the state does not have a savings account and an estimated one-half of all households in the state do not have sufficient savings to pay for basic expenses for three months in case of an emergency;
(3) Texans' inexperience with mainstream financial services and lack of savings has many negative consequences, including causing financially vulnerable Texans to turn to predatory lenders outside of the mainstream financial system for credit;
(4) mainstream financial institutions in states
across the country offer savings promotion raffles to help familiarize people with the mainstream financial system and to encourage people to open savings accounts and to save money;
(5) savings promotion raffles are normal financial products offered by mainstream financial institutions, like traditional savings accounts, with the added feature of offering chances to win prizes for saving money;
(6) savings promotion raffles are not lotteries but
are pro-savings alternatives to lotteries;
(7) unlike lotteries, savings promotion raffles do not require consideration for the chance to win a prize;
(8) unlike lotteries, savings promotion raffles have the purpose and effect of increasing an individual's savings and financial security; and
(9) encouraging people to save money is in the interest of the state.
SECTION 2. Subchapter B, Chapter 622, Business & Commerce
Code, is amended by adding Section 622.0545 to read as follows:
Sec. 622.0545. SAVINGS PROMOTION RAFFLE. This chapter does not apply to a savings promotion raffle authorized under Chapter 280, Finance Code.
SECTION 3. Subtitle Z, Title 3, Finance Code, is amended by adding Chapter 280 to read as follows:
CHAPTER 280. SAVINGS PROMOTION RAFFLE Sec. 280.001. SHORT TITLE. This chapter may be cited as the Texas Savings Promotion Act.

(2) "Deposit," with respect to a financial institution, has the meaning assigned by Section 31.002.
(3) "Finance commission" means the Finance Commission of Texas.
(4) "Financial institution" has the meaning assigned by Section 31.002.

(c) A credit union may not require a person to pay a premium or fee for opening or using a savings account or other savings program that is subject to a savings promotion raffle, unless the premium or fee is commensurate with the premium or fee that the credit union charges for opening or using comparable savings accounts or savings programs that are not subject to a savings promotion raffle.
(d) A credit union may not limit the withdrawal of money from a savings account or other savings program that is subject to a savings promotion raffle, unless the withdrawal limits are commensurate with the withdrawal limits that the credit union imposes on comparable savings accounts or savings programs that are not subject to a savings promotion raffle. This subsection does not prohibit a credit union from requiring a deposit of an amount of money to remain in a savings account or other savings program for a certain period of time in order for the deposit to represent an entry in a savings promotion raffle.
(e) A credit union shall pay interest or dividends on a savings account or other savings program that is subject to a savings promotion raffle at a rate that is commensurate with the interest or dividend rate that the credit union pays on comparable savings accounts or savings programs that are not subject to a savings promotion raffle.

A deposit of an amount of money in a savings account or other savings program that results in an entry in a savings promotion raffle is not considered.

(c) A financial institution may not require a person to pay a premium or fee for opening or using a savings account or other savings program that is subject to a savings promotion raffle, unless the premium or fee is commensurate with the premium or fee that the financial institution charges for opening or using comparable savings accounts or savings programs that are not subject to a savings promotion raffle.

(d) A financial institution may not limit the withdrawal of money from a savings account or other savings program that is subject to a savings promotion raffle, unless the withdrawal limit is commensurate with the withdrawal limits that the financial institution imposes on comparable savings accounts or savings programs that are not subject to a savings promotion raffle. This subsection does not prohibit a financial institution from requiring a deposit of an amount of money to remain in a savings account or other savings program for a certain period of time in order for the deposit to represent an entry in a savings promotion raffle.

(e) A financial institution shall pay interest or dividends on a savings account or other savings program that is subject to a savings promotion raffle at a rate that is commensurate with the interest or dividend rate that the financial institution pays on comparable savings accounts or savings programs that are not subject to a savings promotion raffle.

(g) The provisions of this section applicable to a financial institution apply to an organization composed exclusively of financial institutions.

(h) The finance commission shall adopt rules and procedures for the administration of this section.

For purposes of Chapter 47, Penal Code, or other state law, opening or making a deposit in an account is not considered a purchase, payment, or provision of a thing of value for participation in a savings promotion raffle and is not considered to require a substantial expenditure of time, effort, or inconvenience.
